MAC Job Description

Teaching

Mount Aspiring College Learning Vision

Our students will be creative, responsive, independent and resilient, acting with kindness and respect. Our curriculum will be broad emphasising student agency, critical thinking and collaborative approaches.

Reporting Relationships

All teachers are responsible to the Principal, but on a day to day basis are expected to follow the direction of the appropriate Head of Learning Area and the Assistant Principal (Curriculum).

Classroom Teaching

This involves, but may not be limited to:

- Planning and preparing programmes and lessons, with an emphasis on differentiation. Teaching classes according to the educational needs of the students. Incorporating 'Teaching as Inquiry' into the classroom programme.
- Assessing, recording, analysing and reporting on development, progress and attainment of students on our student management system.
- Reporting in writing on the Parent Portal, including fortnightly reports and through parent/student interviews.
- Contributing to Curriculum meetings to ensure a team approach towards teaching and learning.
- Providing class-based data and analysis to the head of department for curriculum reporting purposes.
- Promoting the well-being of students through positive feedback and mentoring. Working positively with whanau teachers and deans to support the pastoral needs of individual students.
- Following all relevant policies and procedures with respect to health and safety both in the classroom and whilst involved in education outside the classroom.

Whanau teacher responsibilities

Most members of staff act as whanau teachers. The whanau group incorporates students from Years 7 to 13 and meets for morning registration for 10 minutes at the start of the school day, and once a week for 25 minutes. The role of the whanau teacher is to build a caring and supportive family group, and to relate to students on an individual basis showing an appreciation of them, a concern for their needs and an interest in their goals.

Specific responsibilities include:

- Establishing whanau routines early and consistently, and promoting good whanau attitudes, tone and morale.
- Reinforcing school-wide values and expectations with the whanau group.
- Taking the roll each day and following up on unexplained absences with parents.
- Referring any persistent lateness and absences to the dean, and working positively with the dean, the parents and the student to establish better patterns of attendance.
- Getting to know the students and their families and offering guidance and support as appropriate, referring students to careers and guidance staff when necessary.
- Collating, editing and commenting on progress via written reports and fortnightly reports.
- Goal Setting with students in February and reviewing in July on the Parent Portal

Wider Responsibilities and Expectations

The teacher is also expected to:

- Be a positive role model for students both inside and outside of the classroom. Participate in assemblies, house and whanau activities.
- Respect and support all colleagues.
- Be loyal to colleagues and the college in the wider community.
- Be involved in the Personal Development System (PDS) on an annual cycle, and participate in relevant further training and professional development as identified. Take responsibility for gathering evidence to support teacher registration. To understand that being a Teaching Professional includes two components: Classroom Teaching Practice and Professional Practice.
- To be aware of acting within the code of ethics for all certificated teachers. Participate in meetings at the school relating to the curriculum, pastoral or administrative organisation of the school.
- Carry out supervisory duties during breaks and lunchtimes as reasonably requested. Record any relevant student pastoral issues on KAMAR.
- Record the attendance and absence of students on daily basis for each class taught. Do internal relief as required on the reasonable request of the relief coordinator. Be involved in at least one co-curricular activity.

Teachers are expected to work the hours necessary to fulfil the requirements of the role. During term time this includes, but may not be limited to:

- Being at school and available between the hours of 8.35am and 3.15pm for timetabled classes, internal relief and duty as required. If leaving the school during this time the teacher is expected to sign out at the office and indicate a time of return.
- Attendance at meetings as required outside those hours (but not normally after 5.00pm).
- Attendance at parent-related functions such as option evenings, parent interviews and award ceremonies which are held outside of normal working hours.
- In addition, teachers are required to attend for up to two teacher-only days at the beginning and end of the summer holidays.

Part-time teachers are expected to attend parent interviews and award ceremonies, to be on site for their allocated teaching hours and paid non-contact hours, and fulfil other duties and meeting attendance on a pro-rata basis and/or by negotiation with the Principal.

Teachers and Mount Aspiring College must:

- Hold current New Zealand teacher registration and teaching / academic qualifications appropriate to the role applied for.
- Meet the criteria for quality teaching as outlined in the Professional Standards for Secondary Teachers appropriate to their level of experience as a teacher.

Conditions of Employment

Teachers are employed under the terms and conditions of the Secondary Teachers Collective Agreement 2019-2022 either as part of the Collective Agreement or as an Individual Employment Agreement.
