

Learning Support Coordinator (LSC)

Leamington School | Cambridge, Waikato

Full-time | Permanent | Commencing Term 1, 2027

Management Units may be negotiated for an applicant with the appropriate experience and leadership capability.

At Leamington School, our Kids First philosophy is at the heart of everything we do. We are committed to creating an inclusive, supportive learning environment where every child feels valued, experiences success and is empowered to reach their potential.

We are seeking an experienced, passionate and highly organised Learning Support Coordinator (LSC) to join our collaborative and supportive team in 2027.

This is an exciting opportunity for someone who is committed to inclusive education, enjoys working alongside others and has the knowledge, initiative and leadership skills to make a genuine difference for our tamariki.

The role will involve:

- Leading and coordinating effective learning support across the school.
- Working collaboratively with teachers, Learning Assistants, whānau and external agencies to support diverse learner needs.
- Building staff capability and strengthening inclusive classroom practices.
- Contributing to the ongoing development of responsive and effective learning support systems.

We are looking for someone who:

- Is an experienced, NZ-registered teacher with sound knowledge of inclusive education and diverse learning needs.
- Builds positive, trusting relationships and communicates effectively with tamariki, whānau, colleagues and external professionals.
- Demonstrates strong organisational skills, initiative and the ability to manage competing priorities.
- Has a collaborative, solutions-focused approach and the ability to empower and support others.
- Is adaptable, reflective and committed to ongoing professional growth.
- Demonstrates a strong commitment to Te Tiriti o Waitangi and culturally responsive practice.

Experience in a SENCo, LSC or similar learning support leadership role would be advantageous.

At Leamington School, relationships matter. We are a school that values excellence, holds high expectations for teaching and learning, and is committed to continually improving our practice. You will join a welcoming, dedicated team where collaboration, professional growth and a shared commitment to achieving the best outcomes for every learner are central to what we do.

We are looking for someone who understands that effective learning support is about more than systems and interventions. It is about relationships, empowering others and ensuring every child experiences a genuine sense of belonging and success.

If you believe in putting kids first, strive for excellence and are passionate about making a difference, we would love to hear from you.
