This is an exciting opportunity for a motivated teacher to work in a future focused school that is transforming teaching and learning practice so that our students are agentic, innovative and excited learners.

Our new teacher will be well supported by our teaching staff and leadership team who have been on a learning journey that includes collaborative teaching within learning hubs. We have an enthusiastic and involved parent community who are travelling the learning journey with us.

We have a Capabilities based curriculum and a 'Te Ara Tika' Learning to Learn model to support deep learning. Our staff are interested in transforming learning to raise student outcomes.

Enclosed you will find our Vision, Guiding Principles and Capabilities. Our Frankley Curriculum is a 'living' document as we promote the belief that we are all 'lifetime learners' and make adjustments and improvements as new understandings become known. Our Frankley School Curriculum is available on our school website www.frankley.school.nz

This fixed term teaching position commences term 1 2021

Our current roll for 2020 is 305.
